Sayyid Al-Hakeem Commends Commitment to Moderation, Centrism, Iraqi Openness to Regional and International Surroundings

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a delegation from the National Al-Rouia Gathering to discuss the latest political developments and the state of youth in the country.

His Eminence emphasized the importance of harnessing youth energy to drive progress in construction and development, addressing the challenges faced by young people. H.E. called for updating the discourse directed at the youth, highlighting the significance of training and development. H.E. stated that youth are the foundation for energizing productive sectors in the country such as agriculture, industry, commerce, investment, and modern technology.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem urged the promotion of positivity and optimism within society, emphasizing the importance of recognizing achievements. H.E. noted that the stability achieved in various political, social, and security domains was the result of Iraqi sacrifices. H.E. stressed the need to maintain Iraq’s openness to its regional and international environment and adhere to a path of moderation and centrism.
