During meeting IMN president, Board of Trustees, Sayyid Al-Hakeem calls to establish media production city, children chanel

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with a delegation from the Iraqi Media Network, led by Mr. Kareem Hamadi and including directors of channels, newspapers, magazines, and news agencies, as well as with a delegation from the Board of Trustees of the Iraqi Media Network, headed by Mr. Thair Al-Ghanemi. His Eminence affirmed the significance of the network in supporting and advancing Iraqi media and praised its role in covering large-scale in millions, pilgrimages.

H.E. advocated for establishing the Iraqi University of Media to include curricula on the latest media and artificial intelligence developments. Additionally, H.E. proposed the creation of a media and drama production city, with activities based on issues identified by statistical analysis.

H.E. affirmed the importance of launching a dedicated children's satellite channel to protect the new generation from harmful ideas. Furthermore, H.E. emphasized the network's mentoring role over other channels and encouraged investment in showcasing their dramatic productions.

H.E. stressed the need for awareness programs to promote electoral participation and suggested hosting media delegations to share the Iraqi experience and clarify misconceptions.

H.E. also underscored the importance of ongoing development programs for the network's media staff, supported by the state, to highlight achievements and eliminate the language of frustration and pessimism. Moreover, it will address social issues such as drug abuse and divorce.
