Sayyid Al-Hakeem Calls to Integrate Academics with State Institutions to Resolve Outstanding Issues

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with Dr. Ali Maseer, the President of the Iraqi Academics Syndicate, and emphasized the role of academics in Iraqi society and the importance of this group in supporting the state and its institutions. His Eminence discussed how their integration is crucial for proposing ideas and solutions to address lingering and inherited issues from previous periods. H.E. highlighted that academics and research institutions should take the initiative in suggesting solutions and asserting their roles.

H.E. also called to support academics by providing a suitable working environment and granting them their rights, such as land plots, financial facilities, and any measures that could improve their living conditions.
