Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Iraq’s Current Stability Represents Favorable Investment Environment

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, with His Excellency Mr. Arturo Aníbal Gallegos Ramírez, the Venezuelan Ambassador to Iraq, and discussed the political developments in Iraq and the region and explored ways to enhance bilateral relations between our countries.

His Eminence also congratulated Venezuela on the recent successful presidential elections and wished stability and prosperity for the friendly people of Venezuela.

H.E. emphasized Iraq's openness to all parties in a manner that serves its interests and underscored the importance of strengthening relations between our countries. Additionally, H.E. highlighted the stability Iraq is currently experiencing, along with ongoing construction and service projects, which create a favorable environment for investment in Iraq.

Regarding the situation in Palestine, H.E. reiterated the call to deter the israeli entity, halt its violations and transgressions, and its attempts to escalate the conflict. H.E. also demanded an immediate stop to the genocide being committed against the Palestinian people in Gaza.
