Sayyid Al-Hakeem Urges Diyala’s Delayed Projects Action

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Diyala Governor Adnan Jaier Al-Shammari, and listened to his vision for managing the province, along with its challenges and opportunities. His Eminence emphasized the importance of inclusivity and openness to all political powers.

H.E. called for enhanced communication with other local institutions and state ministries to improve services in Diyala and address stalled projects. H.E. also urged utilizing the province’s agricultural, industrial, and tourist potential, highlighting the need to focus on underdeveloped areas rather than only city centers.
