Sayyid Al-Hakeem meets with Hassan Turan, Head of the Turkmen Front

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Mr. Hassan Turan, Head of the Turkmen Front, to discuss the latest political developments, particularly in Kirkuk. His Eminence emphasized the importance of maintaining balance and stability and working towards making it permanent. H.E. highlighted the need to preserve Kirkuk's diversity, describing it as a microcosm of Iraq.

H.E. stressed the significance of delivering services and achieving development and noted that the success of local governments is crucial to the success of the federal government. H.E. called for granting local governments their constitutional powers to enable them to improve services in their provinces.
