Sayyid Al-Hakeem Calls to Learn Education, Health, Energy from India's Experiences

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Indian Ambassador Mr. Prashant Bisai on the occasion of the conclusion of his diplomatic mission in Baghdad. His Eminence commended the efforts made by the ambassador during his tenure in Iraq and wished him success in his future endeavors.

H.E. highlighted the deep relationship between Iraq and India and called for its enhancement in economic, health, cultural, and educational sectors. H.E. also emphasized the need to strengthen cooperation in the field of energy and to benefit from India's experiences and companies in construction and reconstruction.

H.E. further described the current political landscape in Iraq, noting that the country is experiencing stability on political, social, and security fronts, and stressed the importance of maintaining and solidifying this stability. H.E. also reiterated his support for the Sudanese government in its reconstruction and development efforts.

Additionally, H.E. renewed his call for an immediate halt to the war in Gaza and urged the international community to take responsibility in stopping the atrocities committed by the Israeli occupation against the Palestinian people.
