cSayyid Al-Hakeem Receives Sheikh Rashash Al-Imarah Family, Remembers Jihadi Role

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, received the family of the late Sheikh Rashash Al-Imarah, led by his son Sheikh Saad Rashash Al-Imarah. During the meeting, His Eminence reminisced about the historical relationship he had with the Al-Imarah family through various historical challenges and turning points. H.E. emphasized the importance of tribal communities as a fundamental pillar in preserving Iraq. Al-Hakeem also highlighted the need for stability in northern Basra to improve its service and development conditions and called for better services and job opportunities for the youth in these areas.