Sayyid Al-Hakeem congratulates the Iraqi hero, Paralympics, who obtained a gold medal for the first time in Table Tennis at the Paris Paralympic Games.

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, congratulated Iraq's distinguished athlete, Najla Imad, and the Iraqi Paralympic Committee for her triumph in winning the first gold medal in the table tennis competition at the Paris Paralympics and proudly standing on the podium. This remarkable achievement further demonstrates our people's ability to overcome challenges and achieve greatness.

His Eminence called on the relevant authorities to discover and nurture creative talents and to support people with disabilities, aiming for more victories and raising Iraq's flag high in international arenas.