Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Legal Environment Necessity to Combat Drugs

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Sheikh Adnan Al-Juhaishi, Member of Parliament, Head of Al-Tetower Party, Leader of Khaimat Wasit Alliance, and Chairman of the Committee on Combating Drugs and Psychotropic Substances in the House of Parliament. Their discussion covered the latest developments in Iraq and explored ways to support the government in implementing its service and development program.

His Eminence highlighted the importance of supporting the provinces and empowering them within their constitutional and legal authorities, emphasizing that success at the provincial level is vital for the success of this current phase.

Moreover, H.E. stressed the necessity of creating a legal framework to combat drugs and stressed the need to differentiate between the dealer and the user—the former being a criminal and the latter a victim.
