Sayyid Al-Hakeem Affirms Dialogue Adoption, Judiciary Compliance to Resolve Outstanding Issues

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with MP Hussein Arab to discuss recent developments. His Eminence emphasized Parliament's crucial role in legislative and oversight matters, underscoring the importance of constructive dialogue and respecting judicial decisions to resolve ongoing issues.

H.E. illustrated that the current stability resulted from significant sacrifices made by the Iraqi people to overcome various challenges. H.E. called on all parties to take responsibility for safeguarding these achievements and preventing Iraq from returning to earlier setbacks.

Additionally, H.E. stressed the importance of supporting developmental and service-oriented efforts and backing the provinces in executing their development plans and programs.

The meeting included a discussion on the draft law for establishing unions and syndicates, highlighting the need to adopt standards that strengthen union activity and align its direction.
