Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets MP Osama Al-Badr

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with His Excellency MP Osama Al-Badr, representing the Mandaean Sabian community, to discuss the status of Iraqi communities and their opportunities within the Iraqi context. His Eminence reiterated the importance of managing diversity in Iraq by utilizing its communities as bridges of communication with both the region and the world.

H.E. also emphasized the shared responsibility to safeguard and strengthen the current stability, and to work towards turning it into lasting stability, which is crucial for advancing the country’s development.