Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Diyala Components Governmental and Administrative Representation Importance

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with Sayyid Zaid Al-Yasiri, Head of Ahl Al-Bayt Center (peace be upon them), along with a delegation of sheikhs and dignitaries from the esteemed Turkmen community in Qara Tapa. After hearing the attendees' remarks, His Eminence commended the sacrifices made by the people of Diyala in the fight against terrorism and establishing stability in and throughout Iraq.

H.E. also emphasized the importance of ensuring all components of Diyala are represented in government and administrative roles, as inclusive participation in political and administrative decision-making is vital to reinforcing stability. H.E. stressed that success in Diyala represents success for all of Iraq, given its role as a symbol of diversity. Furthermore, H.E. reiterated the need to manage this diversity by fostering connections with regional and global communities through it.
