Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Holy Najaf Governor

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with the Governor of Holy Najaf, Engineer Yousef Genawi, to review the province’s development and service plans. His Eminence indicated the importance of delivering essential services to citizens, completing strategic projects, supporting key initiatives, and creating job opportunities.

H.E. highlighted the need for collaboration between the provincial authorities, its council, and federal ministries, recognizing Najaf’s religious, cultural, and social significance.

H.E. also called for the launch of major projects in the province, stressing the importance of leveraging its economic, industrial, and agricultural potential, with a focus on supporting farmers, addressing their needs, and ensuring timely payment of their dues.
