Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets South Africa Non-Resident Ambassador to Baghdad

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with Her Excellency Ms. Tselane Mokoena, the Non-Resident Ambassador of South Africa in Baghdad, to discuss the political and security developments in the region. H.E. commended South Africa's efforts at the International Court of Justice in condemning the israeli entity's actions in Gaza. H.E. urged the international community to take a similar stance to help deter the entity from its crimes, which constitute genocide and crimes against humanity. Additionally, H.E. stressed the importance of establishing an embassy and a permanent mission for South Africa in Baghdad. H.E. encouraged benefiting from South Africa's experience in human rights, women's rights, and the fight against racism.
