Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Province Success is Part of Iraq’s Success

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Dohuk Governor Ali Tatar, congratulating him and all leadership in the region on the successful recent elections. His Eminence remarked that the high voter turnout reflects the citizens' awareness and commitment to democracy. Al-Hakeem also emphasized the essential role of the provinces as part of Iraq’s broader success story, highlighting the importance of communication and experience-sharing with the central and southern provinces. H.E. noted the current stability as an opportunity to launch a comprehensive campaign for construction, development, and prosperity.
