Sayyid Al-Hakeem affirms preserving current stability, to transform to permanent

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with several sheiks and dignitaries from Al-Muthanna Governorate, led by Sayyid Abdulmuneim Sayyid Salih Al-Shara’. His Eminence reflected on the shared history with these respected top-level men at pivotal points in Iraq’s past.

H.E. emphasized the importance of staying in touch with all community members and educating current and future generations about these critical moments and leaders' roles. Their discussions also covered recent political developments in Iraq and the broader region. H.E. reaffirmed the importance of safeguarding the current stability and working toward making it lasting. Additionally, H.E. highlighted the essential role that Iraqi tribes must play in reinforcing this stability, which will, in turn, pave the way for reconstruction and development.
