Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Supreme Religious Authority’s Vision Represents Iraq’s, Region’s, World Interests Road Map

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, affirmed his absolute agreement with the vision of the Supreme Religious Authority, Imam Al-Sistani (may he long live). This came in a statement by His Eminence on social media:

“The profound guidance shared by the esteemed Supreme Religious Authority, His Eminence Imam Sayyid Al-Sistani (may he long live), during his meeting with the United Nations Secretary-General’s representative to Iraq, Mohammed Al-Hassan, and his delegation, provides a comprehensive roadmap that reflects the paternal vision of the Religious Authority in promoting the interests of Iraq and its people, while also addressing the interests of the region and the world amid rapidly unfolding events.

We now express our complete support for all the points His Eminence raised, calling on the United Nations to work towards enhancing Iraq’s standing within its regional and international environment and prioritizing key objectives.

May Allah protect our Iraqi people and our Islamic nations, and may He extend the guidance of our supreme religious authority as a beacon of direction, wisdom, and support.

And Allah is the Grantor of success.”
