Sayyid Al-Hakeem emphasizes internal harmony importance within Al-Najaf Al-Ashraf’s local government, highlights services quality, accomplishments impact

At the start of his visit to Najaf Al-Ashraf, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers’ Alliance, met with Governor Engineer Yusuf Gannawi, his deputies, and the Provincial Council Chairman, Dr. Hussein Al-Eisawi.

His Eminence expressed honor in visiting this esteemed province and reviewing its conditions, noting that Al-Najaf is making significant progress in services and development, as confirmed by governmental reports.

H.E. stressed the vital role of cohesion within the local government, stating that it reflects the level of services and achievements. Additionally, H.E. underscored the necessity of adequate financial allocations for provinces by adjusting budget tables for the upcoming year.

H.E. remarked that provinces are witnessing a qualitative leap in service delivery, urging greater media efforts to highlight these accomplishments. H.E. clarified that these achievements are not mere political rhetoric but are supported by documented figures from relevant governmental statistics.
