Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Al-Najaf Al-Ashraf Excels in Tourism, Agriculture, Industry, History, and Culture, and Its Advantages Must Be Leveraged to Serve Its People

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, held a press conference in Al-Najaf Al-Ashraf, stating, "We are pleased to visit Najaf Al-Ashraf, a center of knowledge, struggle, civilization, and history." His Eminence emphasized Al-Najaf’s central role as the city of Imam Ali (peace be upon him), the Religious Authority, and the Hawza, while commending the level of understanding within the local government.

H.E. explained that this visit is part of a series of provincial tours to assess conditions and the quality of services. H.E. highlighted the significance of the census in providing a robust database that supports development and reconstruction. H.E. also pointed to Al-Najaf’s unique features, including its religious, tourism, industrial, and agricultural strengths, affirming that political stability has been achieved, as evidenced by the election of the Speaker of the Council of Representatives.

H.E. stressed the importance of Iraq's official and political stance on regional developments, noting Iraq’s political, media, and humanitarian support for the Palestinian and Lebanese peoples.
