Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Lady Fatimah Al-Zahra (PBUH) Established a Peaceful Path to Demand Rights

At Dar Al-Hikma School of Islamic Sciences, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with a group of researchers and students of Islamic studies.

His Eminence renewed condolences on the martyrdom anniversary of Lady Fatimah Al-Zahra (peace be upon her), emphasizing her central role and significance in the Islamic world. H.E. highlighted that Lady Al-Zahra (peace be upon her) laid the foundation for peaceful resistance and the pursuit of justice through non-violent means.

H.E. stressed the importance of maintaining stability in Iraq and reaffirmed the Palestinian cause as a pivotal issue in the collective Islamic and Arab conscience. H.E. pointed to the consistent support of the religious authority throughout history for this just cause, citing the stance of Imam Al-Hakim (may his soul rest in peace) in supporting Palestine.

H.E. cautioned against allowing emotions to outweigh reason in making critical decisions and emphasized the importance of consulting knowledgeable and diligent jurists in such matters.
