Sayyid Al-Hakeem Reiterates Adherence to the Supreme Religious Authority’s Guidance

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Mr. Abdul Hussein Abtan, Head of Iqtadar Watan Party, and members of the party's political office. The discussions centered on the latest political developments in Iraq and the ongoing escalation in the region.

H.E. praised the efforts of the federal and local governments in improving services and restoring public confidence in the political system, government, and supporting political forces. H.E. highlighted the prevailing stability in the country, emphasizing the importance of preserving and reinforcing it. H.E. affirmed that all Iraqis share responsibility for safeguarding the achievements and transforming stability into lasting peace.

H.E. called for empowering youth and urged emerging political parties to offer meaningful contributions to this vital and expansive demographic. The representation of young people, H.E. stressed, should reflect their size and roles in society. H.E. renewed the call to follow the guidance of the Supreme Religious Authority in addressing regional developments and maintaining humanitarian, political, and media support.
