Sayyid Al-Hakeem Discusses Political Developments with Al-Amiri, Commends Iraq’s Efforts to Support Lebanon and Palestine

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Mr. Hadi Al-Amiri, Head of Fatah Alliance, to discuss the political landscape in Iraq and the region. The meeting emphasized the importance of sustaining Iraq’s current political, social, and security stability, while supporting the government’s efforts in service delivery and development.

His Eminence reiterated the call for broad participation in the upcoming national census, emphasizing its role in establishing a comprehensive database reflecting the country’s health, educational, cultural, social, and economic realities. H.E. encouraged everyone to contribute to the success of this significant undertaking.

Regarding regional developments, His Eminence stressed the necessity of preventing further escalation and halting ongoing conflicts. H.E. also commended Iraq’s government and people for their efforts in providing humanitarian, political, and media support to the Lebanese and Palestinian peoples during their crises.
