Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Western and Northern Iraq Al-Hikma Project Proves Project Nationality, it is a Project and Vision to Build Iraq

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, met with the organizational leaders of Al-Hikma National Movement in northern and western Iraq, we discussed the exceptional circumstances the region is facing, especially after the events of October 7, which caused widespread destruction in Gaza through a campaign of extermination and starvation. The aggression has since extended to Lebanon.

H.E. stated the developments in Gaza and southern Lebanon show israel’s failure to achieve many of its objectives. The resistance forces have triumphed through their steadfastness and blocking israel’s plans. H.E. added the International Criminal Court’s decision to condemn israel for acts of killing, genocide, and starvation is historic. The war on Gaza and Lebanon has dismantled the victimhood narrative that israel has worked to promote.

H.E. illustrated that Al-Hikma National Movement’s projects in northern and western Iraqi provinces reflect a patriotic vision aimed at building Iraq. This vision is rooted in moderation and centrism, which bring people together on shared values and foster acceptance and dialogue under the umbrella of Iraq.

H.E. called for adopting moderation, tolerance, and resilience in the face of challenges is difficult but necessary. It ensures stability, reconstruction, prosperity, and public trust in the political system while deepening national pride and belonging. Iraq’s current achievements resulted from this approach, and called for its continued defense and promotion.

H.E. recalled key moments in Iraq’s post-2003 history where moderation and centrism played pivotal roles in achieving stability and resolving crises. H.E. stressed that Iraq’s challenges can only be addressed through this balanced approach.

H.E. affirmed Al-Hikma National Movement’s commitment to moderation and centrism strengthening Iraq’s stability. H.E. called on its members and organizations to remain steadfast in this approach to achieve its goals.

H.E. emphasized that sincerity to Allah Almighty and pure intentions in all actions are essential for achieving success and progress.

H.E. stressed the importance of fostering collaboration between generations, embracing everyone, empowering members, and promoting unity. This can be achieved by clearly defining roles, mastering tasks, and taking responsibility for the outcomes.
