Sayyid Al-Hakeem Congratulates Nkhabiyoon Gathering Launch, Calls Elites to Introduce Achievements

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with the "Nakhabiyoon Gathering" delegation, led by Mr. Mohammed Al-Bukhati, and congratulated them on the establishment of their group and emphasized the vital role of intellectuals and skilled professionals in Iraqi society. H.E. underscored their responsibility to take the initiative and contribute to addressing the political, social, and economic challenges faced by the government. H.E. urged the elite to educate current and future generations about the realities of the previous era, including its crimes, human rights abuses, and arbitrary policies. At the same time, H.E. highlighted the need to promote optimism and positivity while showcasing the achievements accomplished so far.

Politically, H.E. stressed the importance of preserving the political, security, and social gains achieved to date and working to enhance and expand them.

H.E. reiterated condemnation of israel’s human rights violations, including its actions of killing, starvation, and displacement against the Palestinian and Lebanese peoples. Additionally, H.E. affirmed Iraq’s significant role in supporting Palestine and Lebanon through political, media, and humanitarian efforts.
