Sayyid Al-Hakeem: The School of Moderation and Balance is a Source of Pride for All Iraqis

During his meeting with the organizational leaders of Al-Hikma Movement in Wasit Province, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of Al-Hikma National Movement, stated, "Wasit occupies a special place in the hearts of Iraqis, as it is centrally located within Iraq itself. We take pride in it and in its people, as well as the members of Al-Hikma National Movement here." His Eminence further added, "This city has a long history with Imam Sayyid Mohsen Al-Hakim (may his soul rest in peace), Martyr Shaheed Al-Muharrab, and Aziz Al-Iraq (may their souls rest in peace)."

H.E. emphasized that the school of moderation and balance is a source of pride for all Iraqis, wherever they are, and underscored that there is a careful balance between supporting the people of the region and maintaining Iraq’s stability and security.

H.E. described moderation and balance as the most difficult, strongest, and most beneficial approach for Iraq’s regional and international role, stressing that it must be reflected in our daily actions. H.E. also encouraged the members of the Hikma Movement to better understand and promote their project.

H.E. called for preparation for upcoming challenges and for strengthening internal unity, highlighting the importance of enduring hardship and rallying collective efforts to achieve their goals. Additionally, H.E. urged a focus on serving both within the movement and the wider public, praising Wasit and its people for their historical connection to Iraq’s prominent figures.
