Sayyid Al-Hakeem: Country’s Strength Lies within Society’s Strength, Society Strength Lies within People’s Strength

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the Hikma National Movement, met with Sheikhs and dignitaries from Al-Shammar tribe at the Nefafishah Shammari clan's guesthouse, hosted by Mr. Ahmad Al-Nafashi and his brothers.

His Eminence stated that history is ever-present in the broader context, a history written with blood and sacrifices for Islam and Iraq. H.E. emphasized that the strength of the country lies in the strength of its society, and the strength of society lies in the strength of its people. H.E. pointed out that Iraq is part of its regional environment, influencing and being influenced by it. H.E. expressed his pain over the situation in Palestine and Lebanon, but took solace in the fact that the Israeli entity is suffering and has not achieved its objectives in the conflict.

H.E. urged attention to the positive aspects of Iraq's reality, highlighting that the numbers reflect significant achievements in public services and development, with Iraq making progress and much more to accomplish. H.E. also called for the promotion of positivity and optimism, working toward completing the remaining tasks. Additionally, H.E. emphasized that Wasit is the agricultural capital of Iraq, and it is crucial to further improve the agricultural sector, making agriculture a top priority.
