Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets with National Movement for Reform and Development Leader

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with Dr. Jamal Al-Karbouli, the head of the National Movement for Reform and Development (Al-Hal), where they exchanged perspectives on the evolving political situation in Iraq and the broader region. His Eminence underscored the importance of maintaining stability in the country and working collectively to ensure it becomes lasting while emphasizing the shared responsibility of political powers and social entities in achieving this goal.

H.E. reaffirmed support for any path that empowers the Syrian people to govern their country, secure political independence, preserve their social diversity, and uphold their sovereignty. H.E. illustrated the necessity of remaining prepared to confront potential risks, stressing that national unity and cohesion are key to overcoming challenges.

Additionally, H.E. reiterated condemnation of the ongoing israeli aggression against the Palestinian people in war-stricken Gaza and the continued acts of mass destruction. H.E. called for an immediate cessation of the war, the return of displaced residents, and the reconstruction of the Strip.
