Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem Stresses Iraqi Politics Moderation and Centrism Importance

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, hosted a delegation from the Political Bureau of the Amargi Liberal Party, led by its President, Dr. Qusay Mahbouba. The comprehensive meeting included an exchange of views on the latest developments in Iraq's political landscape.

During the discussion, Sayyid Al-Hakeem emphasized the critical importance of adopting a methodology rooted in moderation and centrism as a cornerstone of Iraq’s political framework. His Eminence underscored that the nation’s stability and interests require all political forces to adhere to these principles to ensure a prosperous political and economic future for Iraq.

On domestic political matters, H.E. reiterated his ongoing support for the government in its service-oriented and developmental efforts. H.E. called for fostering a spirit of positivity and optimism in political discourse, prioritizing the welfare of citizens and advancing opportunities for progress and development.