Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem: Calls for Palestinian Unity, Division Rejection to Safeguard the Just Cause

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, expressed deep concern over the escalating unfortunate events in the West Bank, warning of the grave risks of internal conflict that could jeopardize the Palestinian cause.

In a statement shared on social media, H.E. said:

" With grave concern we follow the rapidly escalating events in the West Bank, which raise serious fears of the situation descending into internal conflict. We urge our brothers in Palestine—bound by shared blood, struggle, and destiny—to reject divisions and discord, safeguard Palestinian lives, unify their positions, and prevent the occupier from exploiting the circumstances of strife to serve its interests and harm the just Palestinian cause.

May Allah protect our Palestinian people and unite the voices of all its components and forces in the pursuit of reclaiming the land of their ancestors.”
