Sayyid Al-Hakeem Discusses Political Stability, Services Enhancement with Head of Al-Azim Alliance

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with Mr. Muthanna Al-Samarrai, head of Al-Azim Alliance, and discussed the evolving political landscape in Iraq and the region and efforts to strengthen the country's current stability.

His Eminence underscored the importance of fostering political stability and calm by supporting the State Administration Coalition. H.E. highlighted the need for unified political discourse, cohesive national unity, and maintaining solidarity within the nation. Additionally, H.E. called for continuous security and military preparedness to address any potential challenges that threatens the national security.

H.E. praised the government's initiatives to provide services and drive development in all sectors, affirming the importance of the success of these efforts in all provinces to achieve reality, services, and development enhancement.

H.E. also emphasized the need to support the state, upholding the rule of law, and prioritizing the public good over personal gains.
