Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Sulaymaniyah PUK Leader, Stresses Kurdistan’s Stability, National Unity

During a visit to Sulaymaniyah, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Patriotic Union of Kurdistan (PUK) President Bafel Talabani and members of the party’s political bureau. His Eminence congratulated the Kurdistan leadership on the successful regional elections, extending his congratulations to all competing parties for their achievements. H.E. emphasized the importance of translating this success into tangible development that benefits everyone in the region.

H.E. highlighted the urgent need to finalize the formation of the new government in Kurdistan, underscoring how this step would strengthen political stability and support ongoing development efforts in the region.

Shifting focus to broader concerns, H.E. stressed the significance of maintaining the stability achieved across Iraq, urging vigilance in light of current regional developments, particularly in Syria. H.E. called for sustained security and military preparedness to address potential challenges while reinforcing the need to uphold national unity and Iraqi cohesion.

Furthermore, H.E. emphasized the importance of ensuring that political and media discourse promotes internal stability and prevents any attempts to undermine national solidarity.
