Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Sulaymaniyah New Generation Movement Leader

During His Eminence's visit to Sulaymaniyah, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Shaswar Abdul Wahid, leader of the New Generation Movement. The discussions focused on Iraq's political landscape and regional developments, with an emphasis on the need for collective efforts to ensure stability in both the Kurdistan region and Iraq as a whole.

H.E. reiterated the call to expedite the formation of a new government in Kurdistan, highlighting the importance of collaboration and integration among all political forces in the region. H.E. stressed that Kurdistan’s stability is a critical foundation for Iraq's overall stability across political, social, security, and economic domains.

H.E. also emphasized the importance of resolving outstanding issues between the federal government and the Kurdistan Regional Government through cooperation and understanding. H.E. underscored the need for sustained security and military readiness to address potential challenges, noting that national unity and cohesion remain Iraq’s strongest defense against ongoing challenges.

In conclusion, H.E. affirmed that social cohesion and internal unity are fundamental guarantees for achieving lasting security and stability in Iraq.
