CSayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Socialist Party Secretary in Shahrizor District, Emphasizes Kurdistan Stability for Iraq's Benefit

During a visit to Shahrizor District in Halabja Governorate, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with Mr. Hama Haji Mahmood, Secretary of the Socialist Party. The meeting included an extensive discussion of political developments in Iraq and the region.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem congratulated the political powers in the Kurdistan Region on the success of the recent elections, stressing the importance of translating these results into actionable programs that serve the citizens of Kurdistan and contribute to Iraq's overall stability. H.E. underlined the urgency of forming a new government in Kurdistan promptly and urged all regional political parties to collaborate and work together to achieve this goal, ensuring the welfare of the Kurdish people.

H.E. emphasized that stability in the Kurdistan Region is a cornerstone of Iraq's broader stability. H.E. called for enhanced coordination and cooperation among all parties to realize this objective.

On regional matters, Sayyid Al-Hakeem highlighted the importance of monitoring developments in Syria, affirming that national unity and cohesion are key to overcoming potential challenges in the region. H.E. also stressed the need to maintain the highest level of readiness among Iraq's security forces to address any emerging developments or challenges.
