Sayyid Al-Hakeem Welcomes Ceasefire Decision, Calls for Adherence to International Law in Gaza

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, welcomed the ceasefire decision that brings an end to the prolonged mass atrocities committed by the Israeli occupation in the Gaza Strip. His Eminence expressed gratitude for the regional and international efforts that led to this crucial step, urging mediators and the United Nations to apply pressure on the Israeli entity to ensure full compliance with the decision.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem emphasized the importance of enforcing international laws equitably, stating that this is essential to uphold the integrity, credibility, and effectiveness of international law in addressing crimes and violations.

H.E. also called for urgent global action to support the ceasefire, highlighting the need for humanitarian aid to reach the devastated Gaza Strip, efforts to rebuild the region, and compensation for affected civilians. Additionally, H.E. stressed the importance of restoring normalcy in Gaza by facilitating the return of displaced families and enabling them to rebuild their lives.

Concluding his statement, Sayyid Al-Hakeem extended a salute of deep respect to the steadfast people of Gaza, expressing pride in the sacrifices of the martyrs. H.E. reiterated his support for the ceasefire decision and emphasized the importance of adhering to international law to ensure justice and stability in Gaza.
