Iraqi Judiciary Day: Sayyid Al-Hakeem Reaffirms Judiciary Independence

On the occasion of Iraqi Judiciary Day, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem issued a statement congratulating the judiciary on its esteemed day and emphasizing the importance of judicial freedom and independence. The statement reads:

" The judiciary serves as the bulwark of justice, its central axis, and its unwavering pillar. It stands as a beacon of security and reassurance for the people, resolving disputes and ensuring that the oppressed triumph over the oppressor. A just judiciary provides the natural and sole refuge for citizens, safeguarding them against any encroachment upon their freedoms.

On Iraqi Judicial Day, we express our profound appreciation and offer our blessings to the Iraqi law enforcement officers and judges on this momentous occasion. We reiterate the critical importance of the judiciary's freedom and independence in upholding the constitution, the law, and both individual and public freedoms."
