Sayyid Al-Hakeem Recalls Historic Ties with Al-Juwaiber Tribe, Calls for Supporting Dhi Qar’s Stability

During a visit to Sheikh Adel Darjal Al-Jaberi's guesthouse, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers’ Alliance, reflected on the historical ties that connect him with the esteemed Al-Juwaiber tribe. H.E. praised the tribe’s pivotal role in resisting dictatorship and contributing to the rebuilding of a new Iraq.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem emphasized the importance of maintaining strong ties with Iraqi tribes, noting that Dhi Qar and Iraq as a whole have witnessed significant improvements compared to the past. H.E. expressed his appreciation for the province’s political and social stability, as well as the ongoing development and reconstruction efforts.