Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets with Sheikhs and Dignitaries of Qal’a Sukar District in Dhi Qar

At the guesthouse of the late Sayyid Musa Al-Yasiri in Qal’a Sukar District, Dhi Qar Province, His Eminence Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with a gathering of tribal sheikhs, dignitaries, and esteemed figures from the district.

During the meeting, H.E. recalled the deep-rooted bond shared with this historic city and its noble tribes, while also reflecting on the challenges Iraq has faced and overcome through the unity and resilience of its people.

H.E. emphasized that Iraq is now accumulating positive achievements, highlighting the urban development and security stability witnessed in Dhi Qar. H.E. congratulated the people of the province on their rich history of sacrifice, progress, and martyrdom.

Stressing the significance of ongoing development projects across Iraq, particularly in Dhi Qar, H.E. called for preserving and building upon these accomplishments. In this regard, H.E. placed the responsibility on local governments, security agencies, and Iraqi tribes alike to safeguard these achievements and reinforce stability, as they are essential foundations for a comprehensive renaissance that meets the aspirations of the province’s people and the entire nation.
