Sayyid Al-Hakeem Affirms Government-Parliament Unity, Integration

During the meeting with the First Deputy Speaker of Parliament, Mr. Muhsin Al-Mandalawi. Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, discussed the political developments in Iraq and the region, and the upcoming dues. Sayyid Al-Hakeem affirmed the importance of unity and a cohesive national discourse among all political powers. His Eminence stressed the importance of sustaining security and military readiness.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem stressed the need for coordination between the government and Parliament. H.E. called to enhance cooperation between the legislative and executive powers to ensure moving forward smoothly and effectively. H.E. noted the necessity of enacting new laws and amending those requiring revision, especially those with a direct impact on citizens' lives to achieve justice and public interest.

Regarding regional developments, Sayyid Al-Hakeem stated that achieving stability across all areas of the region is essential for overall security, emphasizing that this objective needs collective efforts to realize, and requires cooperative and joint operations to achieve global and regional security and stability.

The meeting witnessed views on prominent political and security challenges in Iraq and the region. While emphasizing the importance of adopting inclusive solutions to enhance national unity and the region's stability.