Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Suni Endowment President, Discusses National Updates, Religious Institutions Roles

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with Mr. Mashaan Al-Khazraji, President of the Sunni Endowment. The discussion focused on recent developments in public affairs, upcoming obligations, and the role of religious institutions in these matters.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem emphasized the importance of a unified religious discourse and the need to modernize its tools. Additionally, His Eminence highlighted the opportunity presented by the upcoming blessed month of Ramadan to strengthen national unity and social cohesion.

Furthermore, H.E. stressed the necessity of collaboration with other institutions, emphasizing the Shiite Endowment and other religious bodies, to enhance the religious and social security in the homeland.

H.E. also underscoring the importance of maintaining security and military preparedness to address emerging challenges.