Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets New Kuwaiti Ambassador and Emphasizes Strengthening Bilateral Relations

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met today with Mr. Hassan Mohammed Al-Zaman, the newly appointed Ambassador of the State of Kuwait to Iraq. During the meeting, congratulations and well-wishes were exchanged as the ambassador begins his mission in Iraq.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem emphasized the importance of enhancing bilateral relations between Iraq and Kuwait in various fields. H.E. highlighted Iraq's unprecedented stability in political, social, and security spheres and reiterated full support for the Iraqi government's developmental and service-oriented approach. H.E. also stressed the need for continued efforts to address challenges through national unity and solidarity among the Iraqi people.

Regarding regional stability, Sayyid Al-Hakeem noted that the stability of the region depends on sustaining and strengthening stability in Iraq. H.E. underscored the importance of joint cooperation among countries to achieve security and sustainable development.