Sayyid Al-Hakeem Stresses Loyalty to Basra, Calls for Justice, Fairness

During a visit to Basra, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, met with a large gathering of organizational leaders from Al-Hikma National Movement. H.E. emphasized Basra's significance to Shaheed Al-Mihrab (may his soul rest in peace), recalling that Basra was his first stop upon returning to Iraq. H.E. underscored the importance of loyalty to Basra and congratulated the attendees on the birth anniversary of Imam Al-Mahdi (may Allah hasten his reappearance), urging readiness for his emergence by promoting justice and fairness and aligning under his army and banner.

H.E. stressed the need to strive for societal reform and not to underestimate the impact of opinions on the community, emphasizing that societal improvement begins with self-reform. H.E. encouraged making use of the spiritual season for this purpose.

H.E. highlighted the honorable history of Al-Hikma National Movement, rooted in its connection to the martyr leaders and its commitment to moderation and centrism. H.E. pointed out that clearly communicating the movement's vision can dispel any misconceptions. H.E. urged effective use of social media and active field presence, stressing the importance of internal cohesion, unity, and overcoming differences and sensitivities.

H.E. noted that moderation and centrism have proven to be the right approach for building Iraq, as experience has shown the negative impact of extreme methods.

H.E. called for promoting this vision and inviting people to connect with and adopt it, emphasizing that Al-Hikma National Movement prioritizes youth empowerment and advocacy, recognizing that youth are society's main priority, while older generations focus on ensuring their children’s welfare and job opportunities.

In conclusion, His Eminence stressed the importance of providing space and opportunities for self-expression and talent development. H.E. emphasized the philosophy of service as central to Al-Hikma National Movement, encouraging creativity in serving others through proactive and motivational approaches.
