Sayyid Al-Hakeem Receives Hadi Al-Amiri, Affirms Enhancing Stability, Achieve Sustainable Development

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received Mr. Hadi Al-Amiri, Head of Al-Fatih Alliance, and exchanged well wishes for the blessed month of Ramadan, and discussed political developments in Iraq and the region, highlighting the importance of maintaining stability in its political, security, and social dimensions. His Eminence emphasized that this responsibility falls on everyone and stressed the need to strengthen stability, making it permanent to achieve sustainable development and advance Iraq to the position its people aspire to—one for which they have sacrificed greatly.

H.E. reaffirmed his support for the government’s service and development efforts, advocating for provinces to be granted their constitutional powers. Additionally, H.E. underscored the importance of diversifying income sources and revitalizing productive sectors to generate job opportunities.
