Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Representatives of Persons with Disabilities in Ramadan Gathering, Reaffirms Al-Hikma National Movement’s Support for Their Cause

In a special Ramadan gathering, Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with a group of persons with disabilities during his visit to their headquarters in Baghdad. His Eminence extended his heartfelt congratulations on the arrival of the holy month of Ramadan, wishing them a season filled with blessings and goodness.

During the meeting, Sayyid Al-Hakeem highlighted Ramadan as a time for sincere supplication and divine hospitality, emphasizing that Allah’s justice takes certain abilities while granting others in return. H.E. encouraged individuals with disabilities to have confidence in themselves, asserting that their rights should be claimed through determination rather than granted as favors.

H.E. stressed that persistence and advocacy are key to transforming aspirations into reality, reaffirming that Al-Hikma National Movement has always prioritized the rights of persons with disabilities as a national cause deserving continuous care and support.

Concluding his remarks, Sayyid Al-Hakeem called for the establishment of a dedicated center for persons with disabilities, serving as a landmark for this community in the region and contributing to improving their quality of life by providing an inclusive and supportive environment.
