Sayyid Al-Hakeem Receives Lebanese Ambassador to Iraq: to Continue Support for Lebanon During Reconstruction Phase

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met with His Excellency Ali Al-Habhab, the Lebanese Ambassador to Iraq, to discuss the latest developments in Lebanon.

At the beginning of the meeting, Sayyid Al-Hakeem listened to an update on the situation in Lebanon from the Ambassador, expressing Iraq's solidarity with Lebanon's government and people as they face the challenges currently confronting the country. The meeting reaffirmed Iraq's ongoing support for Lebanon across various political and economic sectors, particularly during the current phase of reconstruction following the recent war.

His Eminence emphasized the importance of further developing bilateral relations between the two brotherly nations to serve the interests of both the Iraqi and Lebanese peoples, reaffirming Iraq's support for all efforts aimed at Lebanon's reconstruction and the restoration of normal life.

At the conclusion of the meeting, both parties expressed their commitment to strengthening mutual cooperation and working towards building a long-term strategic partnership that will support the stability and prosperity of both countries.
