Sayyid Al-Hakeem Meets Dr. Haider Al-Abadi to Discuss Political, Social Developments

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, met today with Dr. Haider Al-Abadi, Head of the Leadership Council within the Alliance and Chairman of Al-Nasr Coalition.

The meeting began with an exchange of greetings ahead of Eid Al-Fitr, as both leaders extended their best wishes to the Iraqi people for peace, prosperity, and blessings during the festive occasion.

The discussion focused on recent political and social developments in Iraq and the broader region. H.E. stressed the importance of safeguarding the stability currently enjoyed across various sectors in Iraq, emphasizing that all political forces bear collective responsibility for turning this stability into a lasting reality.

The two sides also reviewed regional dynamics, agreeing that challenges must be addressed without exaggeration or underestimation. H.E. underlined the need for sustained security and military readiness to confront terrorism and extremist ideologies that threaten regional stability.

H.E. further called for rejecting divisive rhetoric and efforts to pit Iraqi communities against one another, reaffirming the importance of strengthening national unity and rallying all citizens to confront shared challenges together.

The meeting concluded with a mutual commitment to continued coordination and joint efforts aimed at advancing Iraq’s political and social stability.
