Sayyid Al-Hakeem Underscores Importance of Marking International Quds Day

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers Alliance, affirmed that commemorating International Quds Day on the last Friday of Ramadan is a powerful expression of solidarity with the Palestinian people and a firm rejection of any concessions regarding their land under any circumstances. H.E. emphasized that this day serves as a resounding outcry against all forms of violence, destruction, starvation, and water deprivation, as well as a firm stance against the Zionist entity’s aggressive policies aimed at erasing Palestinian identity and sanctities.

H.E. noted that this occasion goes beyond protest; it embodies the collective rejection by Muslim nations and freedom-seeking peoples across the world of the israeli regime’s repressive practices. It also reaffirms that Jerusalem is an inseparable part of the Islamic identity and heritage.

H.E. further stressed that meaningful participation in International Quds Day reflects deep reverence for this sacred land and reaffirms the unwavering commitment of Muslims and global advocates of justice to stand with the Palestinian people in their ongoing struggle to reclaim their legitimate rights.
