Sayyid Al-Hakeem Receives Former Kuwaiti National Assembly Delegation, Affirms Iraq’s Unprecedented Stability, Promising Investment Opportunities

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received a delegation from the former Kuwaiti National Assembly, headed by Sheikh Fahad Falah Bin Jami’. The meeting addressed developments in Iraqi-Kuwaiti relations and ways to strengthen them in a manner that serves the interests of both countries and their peoples.

His Eminence stressed the importance of enhancing bilateral relations based on mutual respect and shared interests, praising the visits of Arab delegations to Iraq and expressing pride in these initiatives that reflect a spirit of brotherhood and growing closeness.

H.E. noted that Iraq is currently witnessing an unprecedented level of political, social, and security stability, along with a remarkable improvement in its regional and international relations. This progress has helped transform the country into a vast worksite across all provinces, focused on delivering services and driving development.

At the conclusion of the meeting, H.E. invited Kuwaiti companies to invest in Iraq, emphasizing that the country offers promising opportunities across various sectors. H.E. affirmed that the presence of Kuwaiti firms would be a vital step in advancing economic cooperation between the two nations.
