Hakeem Receives "Iraq Al-Mustakbal" Bloc Leadership Delegation, Emphasizes National Unity, Rejecting Polarizing Rhetoric

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, received this evening a delegation of leaders from the "Iraq Al-Mustakbal" bloc. The delegation included Dr. Ibrahim Bahr Al-Uloom, former Minister of Oil; Dr. Salih Al-Hasnawi, former Minister of Health; and Dr. Ali Al-Shukri, Head of the Advisory Board at the Presidency of the Republic.

During the meeting, discussions centered on the current political landscape and upcoming national obligations. His Eminence noted that Iraq is experiencing a critical phase of political, security, and societal stability—an outcome made possible by the sacrifices of its people, the historic role of the supreme religious authority through the defensive jihad fatwa, and the efforts of political actors and civil society alike.

H.E. stressed the need to uphold national unity as the foundation for overcoming current and future challenges. H.E. also called for rejecting inflammatory rhetoric, encouraging a calm and constructive political discourse, and fostering a culture of dialogue and openness.
