Sayyid Al-Hakeem Congratulates Mass Wedding Ceremony Newlyweds, Emphasizes Strong Families for a Resilient Society

Sayyid Ammar Al-Hakeem, Head of the National State Powers' Alliance, took part in the mass wedding ceremony organized by “Imam Al-Hakeem Foundation for Relief and Social Care”, offering his heartfelt congratulations to the newlyweds on this blessed occasion. His Eminence affirmed that marriage is a profound principle rooted in the Qur’an and the Prophet’s tradition, regarded in Islam as a cornerstone for building a sound and protected society.

H.E. stressed that financial hardship should not be a barrier to marriage, citing the Qur’anic verse: “If they are poor, Allah will enrich them from His bounty.” H.E. encouraged reliance on Allah and taking the initiative toward marriage as a step toward psychological and social stability.

H.E. also expressed gratitude to the sponsors and organizers of this blessed event, highlighting that strong families form the foundation of a cohesive society and a capable state that serves its people and ensures dignity and prosperity.

Sayyid Al-Hakeem urged the newlyweds to embrace patience, mutual support, and cooperation in building their lives together. H.E. also called upon families to offer encouragement and assistance to young couples in order to establish stable households that can withstand cultural and emotional challenges.
